CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. All bids to be PER LOT as numbered in the Catalogue.
2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final. He also reserves the right to reject any fractional or nominal bid which in his judgment may delay or injuriously affect the sale.
3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be resold immediately.
4. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be absolutely paid on or before delivery, in default of which The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible if the lot or lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges.
5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of purchases, no lot will be delivered during the sale.
6. All lots will be exposed for public exhibition in The Anderson Galleries before the date of sale, for examination by intending purchasers, and The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible for the correctness of the description, authenticity, genuineness, or for any defect or fault in or concerning any lot, and makes no warranty whatever, but will sell each lot exactly as it is, WITHOUT RECOURSE. But upon receiving before the date of sale, expert opinion in writing that any lot is not as represented, The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will use every effort to furnish proof to the contrary, and in default of such proof the lot will be sold subject to the declaration of the aforesaid expert, he being liable to the owner or owners thereof for damage or injury occasioned by such declaration.

7. TERMS CASH. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions any sum deposited as part payment shall be forfeited, and all such lots as remain uncleared after twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, will be resold by either private or public sale at such time as The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, shall determine, without further notice, and if any deficiency arises from such resale it shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale together with all the expenses incurred thereby. This condition shall be without prejudice to the right of The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, to enforce the contract with the buyer, without such re-sale.

8. Bids. We make no charge for executing orders for our customers and use all bids competitively, buying at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

9. The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will afford every facility for the employment of carries and packers by the purchasers, but will not be responsible for any damage arising from the acts of such carries and packers.

Priced Copy of this Catalogue may be secured for 50 cents.

SALES CONDUCTED BY MR. FREDERICK A. CHAPMAN

AN APPRECIATION

By GEORGE H. SMILLIE, N. A.

Henry A. Ferguson, A.N.A., was born at Glens Falls, New York, in 1845, and therefore, naturally, received his first inspiration and instruction in art from that distinguished group of artists emanating from Albany. The writer first met him in New York, in the early days of the Civil War, in the studio of James M. Hart, who was then enjoying great distinction as a landscape painter. Being sympathetic in tastes and aim an intimacy soon sprang up which lasted unbroken till Mr. Ferguson's death in 1911.

The painters of the "Hudson River School," as they were called in those early days, had for their simple creed the portrayal of Beauty and Truth. They were lovers of the beautiful, especially, and ardent seekers after it, in whatever form it presented itself. In landscape its votaries were diligent in seeking out scenes of liveliness, and became pioneers in the discovery of many places which have since, through their work, become popular resorts for summer visitors.

The mountains of New York and New England furnished choice material for wilder nature, while the quiet summer fields and streams furnished restful, pastoral bits much and lovingly portrayed.

Ferguson's love for these things was deep and abiding, and he could never be swerved from his chosen path by the innovators who, in time came to speak of the "Hudson River School" in terms of derision, and who each proclaimed his "ism" as the true aim of the artist—whether it was technical execution or choice of theme.

One of Ferguson's admirable qualities was the loyalty with which he pursued his ideal;—beauty, presented in every charming detail, and in its simplicity, without any of the sophistications or "high stunts" of the promulgators of what they called advanced art.

His love for the beautiful led him into many lands. He was an enthusiastic friend and admirer of Frederic E. Church and through his influence was led to journey and work among the Andes—exploring them extensively through Peru and Chili—from which he gathered important subjects, some of which were purchased by wealthy magnates of those countries for very large prices. Later, his spirit of wandering, having grown, took him as far as Egypt, but always portraying his charming subjects with delicacy and refinement. His Venetian and Egyptian subjects were among his most successful works.

The writer has on the walls of his home two of his cabinet pictures, one of the Andes and one of Venice, which never fail to give him joy and refreshment and fill him with the spirit of the scenes portrayed.

We have seen many new fads come and go in the half century since we entered the field of art, but the works of Old World Masters of early days hold the Worshipful admiration and emulation of the sincere votaries of art today and will for all time. Theirs was the creed of simple Truth and Beauty. In the light of this faith the works of Henry Ferguson may be viewed today

Dec. 19, 1917.

NOTICE

A few of the paintings in the following collection were left by the artist, Mr. Henry E. Ferguson, without his signature on the face of the canvas. For purposes of authentication, a red seal showing the artist's name, that of these Galleries, and the year 1918, has been placed on the back of each canvas or panel now offered for sale. Each of the paintings in the collection has remained in the possession of Mrs. Henry A. Ferguson from the date of the artist's death until sent to us for disposal and has been vouched for, as by the brush of Mr. Ferguson, by Mr. George H. Smillie, N.A., and by Mrs. Ferguson.

We shall be pleased to get affidavits executed by the above responsible persons to any purchaser who may so wish, on the payment of one dollar for each, which sum represents the cost of making affidavits.

58 ISLAND OF SAN LAZARO, VENICE

CANVAS MOUNTED ON BOARD

Height, 6½ inches; width, 14¾ inches

This gem-like island with its picturesque tower and buildings, flanked by two smaller islands, is set in a sunny opalescent sea.

59 MOUNT CHIMBORAZA NEAR CHICAPAYO, ECUADOR

Height, 17 inches; width, 12 inches

From the rocky pass on the right, two men mounted on burros, are looking over a vineclad gorge and its feathery waterfall, at the snowclad peak in the distance.

60 THE "VIA ARCO DI OSCURO," ROME

Height, 9½ inches; width, 13½ inches

The walled roadway descends to an arched gateway over and through which wooded country is seen; the dome of St. Peter's and the buildings of the Vatican are beyond.

61 THE ISLAND OF SAN FRANCISCO IN DESERTO

CANVAS MOUNTED ON BOARD

Height, 6 inches; width, 14½ inches

Evening's shadows are falling on the buildings and trees of the Island; the purple domes and spires of Venice are seen in the far distance.

62 THE PASTURE, SHEFFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

Height, 9½ inches; width, 14 inches

Across a wooded, limpid stream a herd of cattle graze in a pasturage sheltered by an enormous tree; beyond rise the Berkshire Hills.

Signed lower left.

63 THE ISLAND OF MURANO FROM SAN FRANCISCO IN DESERTO

CANVAS MOUNTED ON BOARD

Height, 6 inches; width, 14½ inches

The brilliant sun glints on the tower and buildings of the island and casts many reflections into the pools and sea in the foreground. Murano is noted for its production of Point Lace.

64 AUTUMN IN THE ADIRONDACKS

Height, 12 inches; width, 23 inches

The low-lying lazy stream has overflowed its grassy banks and largely fills the foreground. It is skirted in the middle distance by pine trees from which rise the richly tinted mountains into a warm, lazy blue sky.

65 SUNSET, VENICE

CANVAS MOUNTED ON BOARD

Height, 6½ inches; width, 11 inches

A gold and red sky from the disappearing sun is reflected in the waters, the dark shadows from the buildings mark the early arrival of night.

66 CYPRESS VALLEY, CHILI

Height, 15½ inches; width, 24¾ inches

The limpid stream is sometimes lost amongst its wooded banks as it winds through the valley. In the right foreground an old farmhouse is embowered with trees; the distance holds a magnificent range of mountains whose many peaks are snowclad and reflect the beautiful blue of the sky.

67 THE BASS ROCKS, GLOUCESTER, MASSACHUSETTS

Height, 16 inches; width, 25¾ inches

From the crest of the lightly-wooded rocks a delightful scene spreads out, a placid sea with its few sailing craft and the low-lying distant shore. Overhead is a warm grey sky with a few jackets of blue. The distinctive atmosphere of New England permeates the canvas.

68 LOOKING OVER APPLE ALLEY, ASHFIELD,
MASSACHUSETTS

Height, 12½ inches; width, 22¼ inches

The sloping hillside, with its gaily colored lichen covered rocks exposed here and there in the rough pasture, is crowned with trees, beyond in the blue haze the beautiful, undulating valley stretches far away in the distance.

69 THE VALLEY OF RIOBAMBA, ECUADOR

Height, 16 inches; width, 25½ inches

Across the sandy valley, with its green vegetation in the foreground, is seen the blue river nestling amongst the greenclad mountains, many of whose peaks are capped with snow.

70 A VENETIAN CANAL

Height, 17 inches; width, 10½ inches

Noble palaces rise on either side, several huge green mooring posts give color to the scene; the steps on the left are occupied by two persons in conversation; gondolas are moored at many doors; in the distance are two bridges and the Campanile.

Signed on lower left.

71 THE PEAK OF ORIZABA, MEXICO

Height, 18 inches; width, 24½ inches

In the foreground is the compound of Foatin, with its native workers. The middle distance holds tropical foliage and a few groups of trees, beyond, the purple mountain range with its ever snowclad peak rises in all its majesty to the clouds.

72 EVENING, VENICE

ON WOODEN PANEL

Height, $6\frac{3}{4}$ inches; width, $12\frac{1}{2}$ inches

The sun is nearly below the horizon behind the domes and turrets of the city, its last golden rays just catch the waters of the lagoon. Sketch.

73 A GORGE IN THE PERUVIAN ANDES

CANVAS MOUNTED ON BOARD

Height, $15\frac{1}{4}$ inches; width, 12 inches

Two peons' huts are perched high on the pass overhanging the rocky palm and vineclad gorge with its feathery waterfall dashing to the depths below. The mountain peaks, every clad in snow, seem to guard the pass from any intrusion. Rich in its tropical coloring.

74 LOON LAKE, NEAR SHEFFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

Height, 16 inches; width, 26 inches

The placid lake and the near shore occupy the foreground; a group of trees and an idle boat near the opposite bank throw their reflection on the water; to the left is a hay-wagon and its teamsters; beyond the noble Mount Everett shelters the scene. Autumn's first tints have just appeared.

75 BUYING A PEACH, VENICE

WATER COLOR

Height, $9\frac{1}{2}$ inches;; width, $13\frac{1}{2}$ inches

Quaint old buildings line the narrow flagged street, in which are various groups of pedestrians. On the right is an open air fruiterer's shop with its baskets of fragrant peaches standing on boxes under a rude awning. A woman with a red clad child in her arms and another child at her side is buying a peach from the vendor.

76 CYPRESS VALLEY

CANVAS MOUNTED ON BOARD

Height, 24 inches; width, 19 inches

From the rocky gorge, with its vineclad walls and feathery waterfall, are seen the valley and the stupendous snow-capped peaks of the Chilean Andes. Overhead is a blue sky. A subtle feeling of the tropics pervades the canvas.

77 THE HUDSON RIVER AT WEST POINT

Height, 12 inches; width, 17 inches

From the broad river, ever interesting with its changing shipping, rise the gold and purple mountains on either bank. The sun has cast a golden spell on the scene.

Signed lower left.

78 SUNSET, VENICE, FROM THE ISLAND OF SAN FRANCISCO

ON WOODEN PANEL

Height, 7 inches; width, 13¾ inches

The low marshy ground of the island is seen in the foreground, beyond is the lagoon with deep purple and gold reflections of an angry sky; in the far distance is the famous city.

79 TONGUE MOUNTAIN, LAKE GEORGE

Height, 16 inches; width, 26 inches

The lake with its many miniature wooded islands stretches across the middle distance; from the further shore rises the famous mountain touched with purple and blue by the lowering sun. In the foreground two groups of pine trees stand sentinel on either side of the sloping bank, at whose foot near the lake is Bolton Landing.

Signed lower right.

80 THE RIALTO, VENICE

CANVAS MOUNTED ON BOARD

Height, 18 inches; width, 12 inches

In the foreground are two huge red and white striped mooring posts rearing their heads into the brilliant blue sky; beyond is an arched bridge; many gondolas are moored or floating on the busy waters. The golden sun glints on the many buildings bordering the canal.

Signed lower right.

81 STREET SCENE IN CAIRO

Height, 16 inches; width, 8 inches

An Arab is approaching through the narrow, arched street with its barbaric decorations and the quaint and varying overhanging window lattices; in the deep shadow on the right is a crouching beggar; beyond the arch in the sunlight are passers-by; overhead a minaret stands out from the radiant blue sky.

82 BASH-BISH FALLS, MOUNT WASHINGTON, MASSACHUSETTS

Height, 29 inches; width, 21 inches

Through a rocky gorge the water comes pelting down till it reaches a group of huge boulders over which it flings its feathery spray into the deep dark pool below. Green trees in all their freshness rise on either side of the steep ravine.

83 THE DOGE'S PALACE AND ST. MARK'S, VENICE

Height, 11 inches; width, 17 inches

The sun glows on the many noble buildings which are brilliantly reflected in the waters of the lagoon, on which quaint craft lazily float.

Signed lower left.

84 LAUREL LAKE, NEAR STOCKBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

Height, 16 inches; width, 26 inches

In a large field skirted by fine old trees, the haymakers are busy with their team; the blue lake with its beautiful wooded banks is beyond; the hazy range of the Berkshire Hills fills the distance.

85 SUNLIT VENICE FROM FUSINA

Height, 12 inches; width, 22½ inches

The marshy foreground reaches out irregularly to the brilliant blue waters, across which are spread out the hot sunlit buildings of the city. Fishing vessels idly float under the dome blue overhead.

86 AUTUMN: LAFAYETTE BROOK, WHITE MOUNTAINS, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Height, 23 inches; width, 14½ inches

The sunlit brook tumbles down from the wooded heights above, over a group of large boulders into a rocky pool; several white birches guard it on the right. (Some of the trees are in an unfinished state.)

87 IN THE APPENINES, ITALY

WATER COLOR

Height, 12½ inches; width, 19 inches

88 THE HUDSON AT WEST POINT

Height, 14 inches; width, 20 inches

On rising ground to the right, a pathway passes between two tall cypress trees and overlooks the broad expansive river with its shipping; a village is on the distant shore. The greenclad hazy mountains rise on all sides seeming to make a beautiful lake of the stately river.

89 IN THE CYPRESS VALLEY, CHILI

CANVAS MOUNTED ON BOARD

Height, 8½ inches; width, 15 inches

A stream emerges from a vineclad ravine, whose rocky walls resemble in their interesting formation a ruined mediaeval castle; three horsemen are clambering up the steep trail on the right; rising above are the rose and blue sunlit snow-capped gigantic peaks of the Andes. A wealth of beautiful color pervades this charming composition.

90 A DOORWAY, CAIRO
